The temperatures were sizzling outside but everybody was having a cool time at the Dakota Estates Annual Picnic on Sunday, July 30. As the mercury neared 100 degrees, the event was moved to the cool confines of the Knights of Columbus Hall in Lidgerwood.

A supper of sandwiches, baked beans, chips, beverage and numerous salads and desserts was enjoyed as everybody listened, and sometimes danced, to Albert Mikesh's sweet sound. Even the chicken dance made an appearance. "I thought it went really well having the picnic at the hall," says DE resident Mavis Stibal. "It was comfortable and cool. The food was great! And it was much easier for those in wheelchairs to get around."

Many had the same sentiment as Mavis regarding holding the picnic at the KC hall. Everybody will be happy to know it is already booked for next summer's shindig.

Thanks to all those that helped make the picnic a roaring success. Special thanks to Father Vincent Fitzpatrick from St. Boniface Church in Lidgerwood for taking all of the pictures you see in this newsletter. To look at more of Father Fitzpatrick's pictures, see the special insert.

Albert Mikesh provided entertainment for the picnic crowd.

Golf Tournament/Raffle Raises the Roof

A storm raged outside as fifty two golfers gathered for the awards ceremony.

Golfers were teeing off for a good cause at the Third Annual Dakota Estates Golf Tournament and Raffle on Thursday, August 10 at the Lidgerwood Golf Course.

Between the golf tournament and the raffle, $2845 was raised to help fix the roof of the DE chapel.

Fifty-two golfers took part in the event competing for prizes, many donated by area businesses.

A chip-off between the top two teams, both scoring a 51, resulted in a first-place finish for the team of DE Board Member Al Nelson, Elmer Frank and Jane Priebe, the only team of three. Second place in the top flight went to the foursome of Kaycee and Reese Wickoren, Sean Forrester and Austin Sten-vold. The Bank of the West squad featuring Ron Heley, Kelly Hubrig, Brad Bakken and John Sakry shot a 52 for third place.

The second flight also resulted in a chip-off when three teams scored a 63. Coming out on top was the team of Bob Haas, Bill Clark, Kenny Clark and DE resident Lyle Clark. Finishing second was the foursome of Deb Foertsch, Denise Milbrandt, Perry Anderson and Ronny Marx. Rounding out the top three in the second flight was the squad of Jeff & Deb Grumbo and Mike & Sheila Grumbo.

The chip-offs finished just in time as the bright sunny day gave way to a severe thunderstorm with driving rain and howling winds. Awards were handed out as the rain pelted the clubhouse.

Other notable awards included:

Longest Drive-Men #7: Kelly Hubrig, Longest Drive-Women #1: Amy Bishop, Longest Putt #2: Ron Heley, Longest Putt #6 Arla Strege, Closest to the Pin #4: Ken Clark, Closest to the Pin #8: Jane Priebe.

Bible Camp Entertains DE Residents

Dakota Estates residents got a special treat one sunny August morning. Children from the Holy Cross Bible School, wearing white baseball caps they decorated themselves, sang and acted out several songs of faith for the crowd assembled in the dining room. Led by college youth from the Shepherd's Hill Bible Camp in Bottineau, ND, the bible school ran for one week at Holy Cross and was attended by 34 children from multiple churches in Lidgerwood. In addition to the program at DE, the children performed for a packed house at Holy Cross.

"I enjoyed it very much," says DE resident Barbara Wohlwend. "I love when the kids come over and sing."
